

Our top 7 reasons you need to be at ATMIA US 2019!

If you play any role in the ATM channel, the ATMIA 20th annual U.S. conference and expo is the one event that you simply must not miss! So, here are our lucky seven (of the many) reasons that you should participate:

1. Get a head start on the event by making connections with your peers at the Opening Reception.
2. Kick off the conference by attending an inspiring Keynote Address from Chris Bertish – Waterman, Adventurer, Best Selling Author, Film Director.
3. Over 100 exhibitors will showcase and demonstrate the latest products and services available.
4. Join over 1,200 of your ATM industry peers and colleagues from across the country and around the globe.
5. Five pre-conference workshops are included with your conference registration and offer a “deep dive” on relevant topics.
6. Five different Breakout tracks provide both financial institution and independent delegates with an opportunity to focus on specific areas of interest.
7. ATMIA members can participate in the ATM Town Hall Meeting and a discussion about how the ATM industry impacts other retail channels.
